- 1.8 Entries may only be made within one category. In case of doubt, please select the most relevant category. It is within the discretion of the jury to move an entry to the most appropriate category.
- 1.9 Applicants agree that jury members have access to their files.

2. Ethics and Compliance

- 2.1 Before nominating a Nominee who is a minor for the NXplorers Awards, the Nominator needs to obtain formal consent from the Nominee’s parent/legal guardian for (i) nomination of the minor, (ii) sharing and processing of minor’s personal data (including name, photographs, videos and/or films) and (iii) minor’s attendance in the virtual ceremony that will be recorded and published on the NXplorers website. Please ask your country Shell NXplorers programme manager for access to the country specific consent form. For adult Nominee, the Nominator must notify the Nominee.
- 2.2 In case a Nominee is shortlisted for the award, the country Shell NXplorers programme manager or delegate needs to complete the Ethics and Compliance due diligence review to ensure there are no possible Conflicts of Interest or Anti-Bribery and Corruption red flags related to nominated individuals and Shell. This needs to be done between 07 October – 15 November 2024.
- 2.3 In case of Conflict of Interest and/or ABC red flags the global NXplorers team has the right to decide to not include the Nominee on the final shortlist.
- 2.4 All consent forms and due diligence results need to be kept as a record by the relevant Shell entity in each country.

ANNEX I – Events Supplementary Privacy Statement – Photographs/Film

Supplementary Privacy Statement

This Supplementary Privacy Statement complements the relevant Shell Privacy Notices available at <https://www.shell.com/privacy.html> and from the Shell website in your location. The aim is to inform you about the use of your personal data prior to and during events (co-)organised by Shell.

Photographs and Film

If photographs and/or film is being taken at the event you are attending, Shell will gather such information for general publicity and commercial purposes, internal Shell initiatives, paid advertising, at events and through print media, online media, Shell's own media and television media.

Except where required by applicable local law or emergency situations, or for our archiving arrangements referred to below, photographs or film are exclusively processed for the purposes referred to above and will only be shared with:

- Other companies within the Shell group of companies;
- Authorized third party agents, service providers, external auditors and/or subcontractors of Shell;
- A competent public authority, government, regulatory or fiscal agency where it is necessary to comply with a legal or regulatory obligation to which the relevant Shell company/companies is subject to or as permitted by applicable local law; or
- With your consent, with authorized third party companies that co-host or are a business partner in the event, including media companies and service providers involved in hosting and organizing.

Shell will not process such materials for longer than 10 years where consent is gathered or there is a legitimate reason for processing in line with the purposes specified above, after which they will be deleted. In all cases information may be held for:

- (a) a longer period of time where there is a legal or regulatory reason to do so (in which case it will be deleted once no longer required for the legal or regulatory purpose) or where the material is retained in our archive for public interest or historical and statistical research purposes; or
- (b) a shorter period where the individual objects to the processing of their personal data and there is no longer a legitimate business purpose to retain it, or consent is withdrawn.

In those cases where processing is based on consent, and subject to applicable local law which provides otherwise, you have the right to withdraw your consent at any time. This will not affect the validity of the processing prior to the withdrawal of consent.
